Thank you for your letter dated 17 February 2023, regarding building community resilience against flood risks.

The information provided in the report is informative, well received, and timely as we address the issues that confront us as a result of Cyclone Gabrielle. Along with other information, this will be used to assist the Government with its response to the broader issues of managing the impacts of climate change.

Thank you for the invitation to meet, I would be please to meet. Please send an invite to my Office for a time that suits and we will arrange to meet in the near future.

Thank you for taking the time to write.
